

Charity law seminars - Spring 2017

Keeping your charity's fundraising compliant

Wednesday 26 April

Charity fundraising has been in the spotlight for some time. With the establishment of the Fundraising Regulator and new developments in the approach of the Information Commissioner, the regulatory and reputational risks are changing quickly. This seminar will provide an overview of the main legal and regulatory issues to help you to raise funds for your charity legally and effectively. Chris Rowse will cover:

- recent developments in this area
- requirements relating to consent under current data protection law and the new General Data Protection Regulation
- corporate partnerships – sponsorship and cause-related marketing
- professional fundraisers

The ABC of charity employment law

Wednesday 10 May

Getting the basics right is critical to good employee relations, managing risk and avoiding costly disputes with staff. Carla Whalen will look at:

- correctly identifying who your employees are and the impact of IR35 after the Uber ruling
- ensuring the employment contract and other policies are as protective as possible for your organisation
- the ACAS Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance procedures
- managing change and redundancies
- the nuts and bolts of discrimination law

Charity trading and social enterprise

Wednesday 24 May

We are often asked to help set up 'social enterprises' and what the advantages and disadvantages of particular models are. In this seminar Andrew Studd will cover:

- what do we mean by social enterprise?
- how a charity can trade as a social enterprise and other structural options
- the difference between primary and non-primary purpose trade
- governance and risk management in relation to trading and trading subsidiaries
- managing risk through contracts and sub-contracts
