Russell-Cooke is a top 100 law firm with over 250 lawyers, many of whom are leaders in their field. Our US/UK tax and estate planning lawyers advise individuals, families, trustees and executors on private client matters involving the UK and US.

Our expertise

Where US/UK cross-border issues arise, it is crucial for clients to obtain coordinated advice to navigate the complex, and often misaligned, tax and succession regimes. Our lawyers offer thoughtful, tailored guidance to US-connected clients, focusing on protecting their assets and interests, and working closely with US advisors where necessary. We advise on:

- cross-border estate planning for UK and US clients
- UK inheritance tax mitigation
- wills, trusts and succession planning across jurisdictions
- US-linked structures including trusts and LLCs
- UK tax treatment of trusts and estate planning vehicles
- residential property acquisitions and tax-efficient ownership
- powers of attorney in the UK (including LPAs)
- pre-immigration and relocation
- tax planning and residence
- estate administration and probate with US connections
- tax-efficient charitable giving across the UK and US
- international family matters including marital agreements, divorce and cross-border children disputes
- UK property sales and purchases
